

How much does (not should) a new culture affect how we reach out? (Acts 15)

CTK Lake Stevens

Suburban people are already over-extended and over-loaded so we must find an alternative to commitment by addition—creating and transforming regular rhythms and routines of life.

Suburban people have porches, but aren't sure how to use them so there is a lot more relational groundwork to do.

Suburban people are used to having much of life on their own terms, so make as much as we can broadband, not broadcast.

Suburban people have been there, done that (and got the T-Shirt), so we are striving to be attractive, but not attractional

We only have one growth strategy—grace (Acts 11:19-24)
